Grades 7–8 Literature

Textbook Rating

Texas has approved the Grades 7–8 Literature programs of four major publishers for 2001 local adoption. Based on the STORY CONTENT of their reading selections (we have standard review criteria to judge this), they rank thus:

better

ELEMENTS OF LITERATURE
(Holt Rinehart Winston, 2001)

fair

LITERATURE: Timeless Voices, Timeless Themes
(Prentice Hall, 2001)

poor

LITERATURE: The Reader's Choice (Glencoe, 2001)	LANGUAGE OF LITERATURE (McDougal Littell, 2001)
---	---

These two series have the greatest total numbers of the following problems:

- amoral storylines normalizing ethical cynicism and anti-social behavior
- emphasis on death or sorrow
- political correctness (e.g., anti-white, anti-male, anti-Christian bias)
- editorial insensitivity (swearing, near-profanity, sexual suggestiveness)

No publisher funded our reviews in any way. We have no financial stake in any textbook company, nor have we any monetary interest in any textbook adoption outcome. Our support comes from concerned individuals and a few small foundations, which to our knowledge have no ties to the public school textbook industry.
